3. Points for Specialists and Facts for Philatelic Learners. Under these heads are given short notes about stamps, some of them new and some of them old, but all of them of permanent interest and value.

It would cost from twenty to twenty-five dollars a year to keep up with the market so completely by the purchase of priced catalogues of auction sales.

5. A Talk about New Issues, by Gardner R. Kennedy. This department avoids the dry catalogue style of most chronicles and gives in a bright and readable form the facts about the issues of stamps as they appear.

The advertisements of Mr. B L. Beard will be found to contain many suitable offers in the line of Stamps. Stamps on sheets, Packets of Stamps, Post-cards, etc., and we think the stand he takes in conducting his business is to be commended, viz., his terms are cash in advance to all satisfaction guaranteed, we would therefore advise recipients of our publication to give this gentleman a fair trial and judge for themselves.

The handsome little booklet of The International Stamp Exchange of Aberdeen, Scotland, should be in the hands of all reliable stamp collectors desirous of joining a good exchange society, and I have no doubt, but what Mr. Alex. G. Lyall to facilitate matters, will forward me a good supply of these booklets which reliable Canadian and American collectors may promptly receive by dropping the publisher of this list a post-card, collectors on this side of the Atlantic will then quickly receive particulars and be able to communicate at once with headquarters.

B. L. BEARD,

P. O. Box 179 MONTREAL,

FROM a business aspect, it is important that advertisers should be correctly informed regarding the merits of the publications they intend to patronize.

Bona-Fide circulation, Date of Issue, Average Number of Pages, and Advertising Rates all these particulars are of great value to the advertiser, but we must not stop here, the quality of the advertisements the publication carries demands our most earnest and careful consideration.

Do not be deceived by the publisher or so called advertising agent offering an 1 inch advertisement in about 4 publications for the ridiculous price of about $1.50 Money order, under the guise of cheap combination rates, such offers are a delusion and a snare, and however startling the inducements offered, the nett results will be that the majority of such publications will find a resting place in that well known receptacle the Waste Basket.

High Class ADVERTISING pays, and publications rightly so classified are seldom found in the Waste Basket, because they bear the stamp of reliablity, have the support of the better class of advertisers, and the fraudulent advertisers gets shut ont at short notice.

Many small dealers will say advertising rates are too high, but results will soon alter such opinions. Philatelic Facts of Riversicle California W.S.c. accepts 25c in full payment of an 1 inch advertisement one insertion, other .publishers rates per single insertions are 30c. 35c. 40c. 50c. 60c. 75c. 1.00 $1.25 and $1.50, is accepted in full payment of an 1 inch avertisement in "The Post office."

"The Post Office" is an excellent advertising medium, but I shall not dwell on its merits, but would advise advertisers to exercise a wise economy by commencing with a 60c. per inch publication and carefully note results, remembering that the better class of publications are the cheapest in the end.

"Edwards Philatelic Press List and Advertiser of Philatelist Supplies" is devoted to the interests of Publishers, Advertisers and the Philatelic public in general. Advertising rates are quoted strictly in accordance with its circulation.

The publisher also respectfully solicits the patronage of reliable advertisers for the leading philatelic pnblications of the World.

Yours Faithfully,

JOHN EDWARDS.
